ABINGDON FLOORING

DALESMAN

British Craft in Every Loop

Dalesman is a beautifully textured loop-pile carpet with a distinctive chunky construction, creating an eye-catching cobbled effect across the floor.

Rich in depth and character, its relaxed, natural appearance complements both traditional and contemporary homes.

Made from high-quality three-ply polypropylene yarn, Dalesman features three strands twisted together to create a fuller texture, enhanced strength and a beautifully defined finish. It combines the character of wool with the practical performance required by busy households.

Choose from characterful Berber shades, featuring subtle flecks for a naturally varied appearance, or versatile plain colours for a cleaner, more understated look. Whichever style you prefer, Dalesman brings warmth and texture to your home while remaining easy to care for.

Protected by Abingdon Flooring's Stainfree for Life Guarantee and a 10-Year Wear Warranty, Dalesman offers excellent resistance to stains, fading and everyday wear - delivering distinctive style, lasting performance and complete peace of mind.
